AS AND FOR A SIXTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

90. Plaintiff is barred from seeking the relief requested by the doctrine of unclean hands.

AS AND FOR A SEVENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

91. The conduct of Defendants Sprint Nextel Corporation and Sprint/United Management Company that is alleged to be unlawful was taken as a result of the conduct of Plaintiffs and/or the putative class members, and they are thus estopped to assert any cause of action against Defendants Sprint Nextel Corporation and Sprint/United Management Company.

COUNTERCLAIMS

Come NOW Defendants/Counter-Plaintiffs Sprint Nextel Corporation and Sprint/United Management Company and file these counterclaims to Plaintiff's Amended Complaint and allege and state as follows:

I. INTRODUCTION

1. Counter-Plaintiff Sprint Nextel Corporation is a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of Kansas, and was formed in 2005 as a result of the merger of Sprint Corporation, Inc. and Nextel Communications, Inc. Counter-Plaintiff Sprint/United Management Company ("SUMC") is a subsidiary of Sprint Nextel Corporation.

2. As alleged in the Amended Complaint, Counter-Defendant Melissa Eng-Hatcher is a resident of New York. She was also employed by SUMC as a non-exempt retail store consultant in two of Sprint's New York retail stores.

3. The Court has jurisdiction over these claims as they are compulsory counterclaims. (Rule 13(a), F.R.C.P).

4. Venue for these counterclaims is properly in this Court

II. FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

5. Counter-Defendant Eng-Hatcher was employed by SUMC as a non-exempt, hourly retail store consultant from July 19, 2004 to March 5, 2006 in two of Sprint's New York retail stores.

6. Throughout her employment with SUMC, Counter-Defendant was required to record, on a daily basis, the hours she worked using various time keeping systems.

7. These time records show that Counter-Defendant often worked less than 40 hours a week.

8. However, the matching payroll related records show that Counter-Defendant was paid for working 40 hours for weeks in which she worked less than 40 hours. These overpayments are not attributable to valid non-work hours for which retail store consultants could receive compensation for such as Paid Time Off, jury duty, holiday pay or FMLA or short term disability leave.

9. Based on current information, Counter-Defendant received over 60 hours of pay during her employment with SUMC for which she was not otherwise entitled.

III. CLAIMS

COUNT I (RECOUPMENT)

Paragraphs 1 through 9 of the Counterclaims are incorporated herein by reference as though fully set forth herein.

10. During her employment with SUMC, Counter-Defendant received pay for hours she did not work and was not entitled to be paid.

11. Under the principle of recoupment, Counter-Plaintiffs are entitled to recoup those amounts she should not have received, in an amount to be proven at trial.

COUNT II (SETOFF)

Paragraphs 1 through 11 of the Counterclaims are incorporated herein by reference as though fully set forth herein.

12. During her employment with SUMC, Counter-Defendant received pay for hours she did not work and was not entitled to be paid.

13. Under the principle of setoff, Counter-Plaintiffs are entitled to setoff those amounts she should not have received, in an amount to be proven at trial, against any amounts Plaintiff may be awarded with respect to her claims.

COUNT III
(UNJUST ENRICHMENT)

Paragraphs 1 through 13 of the Counterclaims are incorporated herein by reference as through fully set forth herein.

14. During her employment with SUMC, Counter-Defendant received pay for hours she did not work and was not entitled to be paid.

15. Counter-Defendant has, thus, been unjustly enriched by those payments at the expense of SUMC. As such, Counter-Plaintiffs are entitled to recover those amounts she should not have received, in an amount to be proven at trial.

IV.
CONTINGENT COUNTERCLAIMS

Counter-Defendant has filed an amended complaint against the Counter-Plaintiffs for alleged wage and hour violations under the FLSA and the New York Labor Laws (as defined in the Amended Complaint) on behalf of herself and seeking to represent a nationwide collective class under the FLSA and a New York class under the New York Labor Laws.

16. No other plaintiffs or putative class members have joined Counter-Defendant's action and neither class has been certified to date.

17. Counter-Plaintiffs may have similar counterclaims of recoupment, setoff and unjust enrichment against the putative but unknown class members. However, because neither class has been certified and no additional plaintiffs have joined yet, Counter-Plaintiffs cannot determine with certainty what counterclaims they may have against any of the putative class members.

18. As such, in the event that an FLSA collective class is conditionally certified by the Court, Counter-Plaintiffs conditionally assert the counterclaims of recoupment, setoff and unjust enrichment against any class member whose records reveal that he or she received compensation for which they did not earn and were not entitled to receive.

19. Additionally, in the event that a New York class is certified by the Court, Counter-Plaintiffs conditionally assert the counterclaims of recoupment, setoff and unjust enrichment against any class member whose records reveal that he or she received compensation for which they did not earn and were not entitled to receive.

WHEREFORE, the Counter-Plaintiffs respectfully request that judgment be entered on their Counterclaims as follows:

- (a) that Counter-Plaintiffs be awarded monetary damages in the amount of the overpayments, which is to be proven at trial;
- (b) that any monetary damages awarded to Counter-Plaintiffs will be used for set-off purposes only in the event that Counter-Defendant is awarded any monetary damages under her Amended Complaint; and
- (c) that the Counter-Plaintiffs be granted such other and further relief as the Court may deem to be necessary and proper.
